

Thank you for expressing an interest in Club Body Corporate at The Investors Club 2009 conference launch. We are excited about the new venture and believe strongly in its success in not only providing a significant saving on Body Corporate Management for investors and developers, but a wealth of knowledge on Body Corporate Management provided to members, which we aim to convey through interesting articles and fact sheets.

To assist us in tailoring our communications and ensure we are providing you with the information you need, we ask that you take a few moments to complete the survey. This will provide us with us with valuable information to ensure we are communicating effectively and giving you information you need when you need it most.

Thank you for your interest and your time to complete the survey.
